I am _____ to join with you today in what will go down in _____ as the greatest _____ for _____ in the history of our nation.

I have a dream that one day this _____ will rise up and live out the true meaning of its creed: "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all _____ are created _____."

I have a dream that one day on the red hills of Georgia, the sons of former _____ and the sons of former _____ owners will be able to _____ together at the table of brotherhood.

I have a dream that one day even the state of _____, a state sweltering with the heat of _____, sweltering with the heat of oppression, will be transformed into an oasis of _____ and _____.

I have a dream that my four little _____ will one day _____ in a nation where they will not be judged by the _____ of their skin but by the content of their character.

I have a dream today!

I have a dream that one day, down in Alabama, with its vicious _____, with its governor having his lips dripping with the words of "interposition" and "nullification" -- one day right there in Alabama little _____ and _____ will be able to join hands with little _____ and _____ as sisters and brothers.

I have a dream today!

I have a dream that one day every valley shall be exalted, and every hill and _____ shall be made low, the rough places will be made plain, and the crooked places will be made straight; "and the glory of the Lord shall be revealed and all flesh shall see it together."
